What is Teen Library Council?

Teen Library Council, or TLC, is a group of teens that meet once a month during the school year at the DeRidder branch of the Beauregard Parish Library. TLC will essentially be the brains behind our teen library programs.

When is TLC?

We will meet once per month during the school year on the last Wednesday of each month. The meetings will be held at the main branch in DeRidder (205 S. Washington St.). Meetings will be 1 hour long.

Who is eligible?

TLC is open for any students in grades 6 through 12 or the equivalent (public, private, home-school, etc.). This is open for Beauregard Parish students only.

What do I get out of it?

You will have a voice in deciding what the library does for teens. Volunteer hours for school will be awarded. Membership in TLC looks fantastic on college applications! Most importantly, you will receive the eternal and undying gratitude of the library's programming department.

What do you actually do?

Mostly we talk about upcoming programs over snacks and drinks. Sometimes the TLC will vote on program ideas and events.

TLC also gets to do things like:

- Put together grab-n-go kits
- Write book reviews
- Help with book displays
- Come up with bulletin board ideas
- Host a TLC program

What if I can't make it to a meeting?

That's ok! We understand that you may have to study, have an event at school, family conflict, etc.. We ask that you submit a book review by the next meeting to make it up.

How do I sign up?

You can scan the QR code on the back of this pamphlet, go to library.beau.org and click on the How Do I...? tab then click on How Do I Apply for TLC? We will also have paper applications available at each branch location.
